How to Start Your Resume (1)

- ❖ 1st - Build a long, master resume
 - ❖ Put everything you can think of
 - ❖ You always have room to make changes
- ❖ 2nd - Build customized resumes for specific jobs
 - ❖ Use www.wordclouds.com to ensure resume matches up with job description; make sure to include key words

Main Point

- ❖ Match Keywords - Resume vs. Job Description
- ❖ Question: What is a Keyword?
- ❖ Question: Extra Credit for Repeated Keyword?

How to Start Your Resume (2)

- ❖ Most will end up with a 1-2 page résumé
 - ❖ New graduates- emphasize your education
 - ❖ Experienced - put experience on top and education on the bottom
- ❖ Keep a folder showing which resume sent to the company for quick reference

Resume Submission

- ❖ Maximize overlap between JD keywords and resume
- ❖ Always submit a .doc or .docx; don't send a PDF-
15% of the time it gets trashed
- ❖ Avoid tables and boxes
- ❖ Bullet points OK
- ❖ Keywords are more important than format initially

Contact Information on the Resume

- ❖ Email addresses
 - ❖ @gmail.com, @yahoo.com or @outlook.com
 - ❖ NOT @aol.com
 - ❖ Email address should be professional
